

INTERNATIONAL SEABIRD ACTIVITIES NOAA FISHERIES

NOAA Fisheries has engaged in numerous international activities relating to efforts to reduce the incidental catch of seabirds in longline fisheries. The United Nations' Food & Agriculture Organizations (FAO) International Plan of Action for Reducing Incidental Catch of Seabirds in Longline Fisheries (IPOA-Seabirds) (see paragraphs 19 and 20) specifically calls on its States (member countries) to do the following:

States, within the framework of their respective competencies and consistent with international law, should strive to cooperate through regional and subregional fisheries organizations or arrangements, and other forms of cooperation, to reduce the incidental catch of seabirds in longline fisheries.

In implementing the IPOA-SEABIRDS States recognize that cooperation among States which have important longline fisheries is essential to reduce the incidental catch of seabirds given the global nature of the issue. States should strive to collaborate through FAO and through bilateral and multilateral arrangements in research, training and the production of information and promotional material.

For additional information about NOAA Fisheries activities on seabird/fishery interactions as well as a link to the FAO's IPOA-Seabirds, see <http://www.fakr.noaa.gov/protectedresources/seabirds/national.htm>
